

Lost Creek Canyon Ranch is available year-round as a TV and movie location. The property is large enough to accommodate more than one shoot at a time and less than two hours from Hollywood and Studio City. It is gated and surrounded on all sides by conservation and open tribal land and thus both private and completely quiet. We invite your inquiries and would be delighted to offer a personal tour on request.

Welcome to

LOST CREEK CANYON RANCH

We are a sprawling 400 acre facility in the foothills of the San Bernardino mountains about 15 minutes west of Palm Springs. Barely five minutes from Interstate 10, the Ranch offers an amazing range of rural and western vistas to meet whatever your needs. The on-site flora and fauna are incredibly diverse, and we can accommodate almost any size shoot. Facilities include a ranch house and subsidiary dwellings, fruit orchard, working blacksmith forge, beekeeper's hut, skeet shooting range, vintage fencing and corrals, year-round running streams, and panoramic views. There is simply nothing else like it in all of southern California. Come see for yourself!
